From Our Family to Yours

Nina P's Cafe is a family owned and operated business. We have been serving Southwest Louisiana since 2000. Paulina Siebarth (owner) and her daughter Fallon Witherwax (manager) are always there to greet you with a smile and warm welcome to make you feel like family. We strive to serve only the freshest ingredients. We have our produce and meats delivered daily to offer you only the best quality. We get here early and stay late to make sure everything we have is home made and made to perfection. From our gumbo, soups, gravys, salad dressings to our ground meat for our burgers everything is prepared fresh daily by real southern mommas who know what real home cookin is! By popular demand we have extended our hours to better serve our amazing customers. When you walk through our doors we will make you feel like family. When you leave, we know you'll be back! From Mommas kitchen to your mouth, well keep you coming back for more!!!!
